

Event Title Health, Human Rights, and Hope

Description The conference will bring together speakers and panellists who will discuss families' involvement in the care of people in prison, the impact of the pandemic on both health and rights, and what more can be done in the future to ensure the wellbeing of people in prison, and their families.

Date 18st November 2020

Venue Online - Zoom

Delegates Approx. 300

Seminars:

Understanding and accessing the support from Visitors' Centres

- Aims
- How Visitor Centres' promote/support family contact
 - The impact the pandemic has had on the work of the Visitor Centres'
 - The role of the Visitor Centres' in the future

Children's Rights a Justice Perspective

- Aims
- Children & Young People caught in CJS
 - Linked to Adverse Childhood Experiences
 - Incorporating UNCRC in Scots Law
 - Council of Europe Recommendations not just UNCRC

Social Care in Prisons

- Aims
- Gaps in social care in prison
 - Research shows that improved access to welfare and services can improve wellbeing and reduce the likelihood of further offending
 - The value of family relationships

Suicide Prevention, Deaths in Custody & Partnership Working

- Aims
- Deaths in Custody Review
 - SPS Suicide Prevention Strategy
 - The role of the Chaplaincy in providing support
 - Utilising the family

Healthy Family Contact, Now and in the Future

- Aims
- What should Virtual Visits look like in the future
 - Could Virtual Visits replace physical visits? – Families want physical contact
 - Mobile phones & In Cell phones the pros and cons
 - What is good for people in prison might not be good for families

Seminar Summary

